

LEATSS OnLine: 24th July – 1st August 2021

Live Summer School at Clairefontaine has had to be cancelled due to the continuing Covid restrictions, but an online version will take place over the same period from Saturday 24th July to Sunday 1st August inclusive. LOL lives in 21!

The tutors so far are

Director Graeme Du Fresne (solo singing, song writing)
Janice Dunn (storytelling, acting for camera, directing, musical theatre)
Freddie Machin (writing, writing for theatre)
George Ryan (vocal qualities, voice for poetry)
Natasha Rickman (Shakespeare skills, comedy/acting/ improv)
Steve Jarand (digital and close-up mask work)
Will Evans (stage lighting design/practical).

Course details and tutors are almost finalised and costs being calculated, and the timetable has been assembled. There will be courses covering the whole period, some courses only on weekends, and some during weekday evenings. This will enable those who have work or daytime commitments to participate. We anticipate being able to send out details by the end of May as well as publish them on the LEATSS website.

Applications for the 2021 Online Summer School will open once the details have been sent out and published on our website.

In spite of summer school having to go online, LEATSS is organising a live course with workshops, for a limited number of people, over one week (12-18 July) in Copenhagen. Pre-information of the Copenhagen Experience, or CopE, have been sent out separately.

Looking forward to seeing many of you in July, either face-to-face or online.

Graeme Du Fresne and John Brigg
